1. Need for Good Governance system

Independent and fully empowered body to

- Support the stated Vision, Mission and objectives
- Foster a stimulating environment and culture to attract talented and dynamic students and faculty.
- Nurture a culture of innovation that improves productivity and support the sustainability and development of the institution
- Forge global, national and local collaborations with academic partners, research and industry to realize the vision
- Develop a coherent strategy and a sustainable growth development path

2. Preamble

Technical and Management Education in India is the most sought for career avenues for a large number of students. Improving the learning outcomes of the students and enhancing their employability skills are the major parameters that challenge the institution. The effective governance at all levels is one of the most important keys to the improvement of the quality of learning, teaching and research outcomes of an Institution. The good Governance Guidelines provide vital directions and indicators to the Governing body of Manakula Vinayagar Institute of Technology for enhancing the effectiveness of performance and to provide overall satisfaction to all the stakeholders. Through this, the Governing Members will have the opportunity to directly participate and monitor the key institutional functions such as developing Institutional Mission, strategic planning, quality standards and quality assurance, accountability and performance, employer engagement, Industry interface and stakeholder interaction.

“Good governance creates a sound, ethical and sustainable strategy, acceptable to the Institution as a whole and to other key stakeholders”.

“Good governance oversees the implementation of such strategy through well-considered processes in an open, transparent and honest manner”.

MIT- Governance Manual
“Good Governance is essential to the grant or assertion of Autonomy. Boards of Governors, by embracing good governance approaches, accept, unequivocally, their own collective and individual responsibilities”.
“Good governance facilitates decision making that is rational, informed and transparent which leads to organizational efficiency and effectiveness that supports and fosters the development of high quality education and research”

3. Scope of Good Governance
